Students are expected to conduct themselves appropriately and respectfully at all times. Students participating in going abroad as a part of a MICEFA entity are expected to abide by the Student Code of Conduct of MICEFA and their home institution along with the laws and customs that govern the host country. Students are legally subject to the same laws and regulations that govern the host's country citizens and any other laws that are applicable to the students as a foreign citizen in the host country.

The following are prohibited:

Further, excessive and irresponsible drinking leading to intoxication and behavior that interferes with the program or rights of others is subject to immediate disciplinary action, and may result in dismissal from host country. Note that the study abroad insurance does not cover any injuries that occur while you are under the influence of alcohol, intoxicants, or any drug not prescribed by a physician.
